

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----|
| Introduction | 1 |
| Shigeru Akita, Hong Liu, and Shiro Momoki | |
| Maritime History during the Late Early-Modern and Modern Eras | |
| Surveying and Mapping the Japanese Archipelago in the 19th Century | 17 |
| Atsushi Goto | |
| The Rise of Silver Dollars: Changing Pattern of Silver Use in Nineteenth-Century Vietnam | 43 |
| Yoshihiro Taga | |
| The Link Between Global Market Change and Local Strategy: The Case of Vietnamese Cinnamon in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century | 75 |
| Masashi Okada | |
| Revisiting Corruption Theory on the Indian Ocean World: A Case Study of Slave Trade in the 19th Century Western Indian Ocean | 101 |
| Hideaki Suzuki | |

| | |
|---|-----|
| Bilbao Merchant and Their Trade in the Eighteenth Century: The View of the Private Company and the Privileged Company Rie Takagaki | 131 |
| Maritime Asia in Contemporary Eras | |
| Modern China's Imagining of the Nanyang and the Construction of Transnational Asia Hong Liu | 165 |
| Sergei Witte and the Shipping Associations: Rethinking the Russian Empire from a Maritime Viewpoint Yukimura Sakon | 195 |
| Itinerary, Revolution, and Port Cities: Comparative Study on Maritime Port Cities as Arenas for Asian Revolutionary Movements Takeshi Onimaru | 213 |
| ASPAC or ASEAN? Institutional Evolution and Survival in Contemporary Maritime Asia Kei Koga | 235 |